Mayor Sarno, on behalf of the City of Springfield will extend congratulations to Unify Against Bullying in recognition of their participation in National Bullying Prevention Month. He will proclaim Monday, October 16, 2017 as “Unify Against Bullying day”.

Unify Against Bullying’s mission is to bring an end to bullying through the celebration of true diversity. There are countless children waging quiet battles against bullying. Many believe they are alone. We want these children to know they are far from alone. They are supported by a loving, caring community of fellow students, teachers, parents, brothers, sisters, business leaders and others. When we stand together, we stand as one.
